Robin Weismantel

Services for Robin Kay Weismantel, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Weismantel, Route One, Aberdeen, were held at 10 a.m. Friday, May 4, at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Aberdeen.

She was dead on arrival at St. Luke's Hospital Tuesday, May 1, following a school bus-train accident near Bath.

The Rev. David Rasmussen officiated and burial was in Scandinavia Lutheran Cemetery in Gem Township.

Mrs. Gerry Holdhusen sang "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" and "How Great Thou Art," accompanied by Merritt Johnson, organist. Attending in groups were fifth grade students of the Bath Elementary School and employees of Farm Power Manufacturing and Distributing Company.

Pallbearers were Derald James, James Larson, Keith Weismantel, all of Bath; Ben Bendewald Jr. and Bernel Stankey, both of Aberdeen; and George Hansen Jr. of Stratford. Vernon Bunsness, Ben Bendewald Sr. and E.F. Jorgenson were ushers.

Robin Kay Weismantel was born Feb. 1, 1962 in Aberdeen. She lived on the family farm six miles north of Bath Corner until 1964 when the family moved to their present home two miles east of Aberdeen. She was a fifth grade student at Bath Elementary School and a member of Scandinavia Lutheran Church and Sunday School.

Survivors include her parents; two sisters, Bonnie Mae Weismantel, 12, and Judy Lynne Krahn, 15; one brother, Donald William Krahn Jr., 17, all at home; grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weismantel of Bath, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bunsness of Groton, Christof Retzer of Aberdeen; and her great-grandmother, Mrs. William Weismantel, Aberdeen.

She was preceded in death by her mother five years ago.
